PRO CONTRACTOR SERIES

1080p: everybody's talking about it, yet the benefits are still a mystery to many. Today, most HD is delivered in 720p or 1080i format, but having progressive 1080 compatibility is important to many customers; and bydsign's line of high resolution LCD televisions and displays insure advanced 1080p compliance. But what's more, we build all our contractor grade displays to meet the rugged requirements and sophisticated modular design needed by today's advanced AV installers and professional home theater dealers. We are making the absolute best product for the lowest cost, so rest assured, bydsign is ready to support your business needs!
